

Career Opportunity

A Bachelor of Science in Agriculture opens up a wide array of exciting and rewarding career opportunities. After completing this course Graduates can pursue roles in various government, private and public sectors and can go for further studies.

Government sector	Private/ Public Sector	Higher Studies
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Agriculture officer</li><li>• Agricultural Extension Officer</li><li>• National Seed Corporation (NSC)</li><li>• Food Corporation of India (FCI)</li><li>• Food Safety and Standards Authority of India (FSSAI)</li><li>• Central Warehouse Corporation (CWC)</li><li>• NABARD</li><li>• Provincial Agricultural Services (PAS)</li></ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Seed companies</li><li>• NGO</li><li>• Public sector banks</li><li>• Agribusiness and Entrepreneurship</li><li>• Agricultural Consultant</li><li>• Sales and Marketing Executive</li><li>• Soil quality controller</li><li>• Horticultural consultant</li><li>• Plant pathologist &amp; Nutritionist</li></ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• MSc. and Ph.D. in various disciplines of Agriculture like Agronomy, Plant Breeding &amp; Genetics, Soil Science, Entomology, Plant pathology &amp; Horticulture etc.</li><li>• MBA in agribusiness management</li></ul>